Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to request a hearing to dispute a contract termination charge levied by AT&T.

In 2004 I signed a 3 year agreement with AT&T which would provide savings on my phone service. After 1 year no savings materialized and I called to find out why. I was told that the minimum had not been met. They were instructed to cancel the contract and they told me it could not be cancelled until the end of the three year term. I left with the understanding it would not be renewed. During the term of the contract no economic benefit was received by me.

On August 1, 2008, after 25 + years as a customer of AT&T I retired and closed my office as well as terminated my phone service.

I have talked with the supervisor at AT&T to try to resolve this matter but they have insisted on taking a hard line.

A copy of AT&T bill and contract is enclosed. I was promised a copy of the contract would be e-mailed to me but it was never received.

Sincerely,

J. Michael Sudduth
